Tax planning for individuals / sole proprietors and investors

The main objective of this course is deploying simple tax planning techniques to avoid costly mistakes in tax compliance. If your tax affairs are not unusually complicated, you should be able to plan ahead without any assistance from tax consultants. This course gives valuable advice and guidance on how to make the most of the available tax deductions, exemptions and incentives. The course also covers real property gain tax planning, which has become more complicated with constant changes in the previous years.

LEARNING OUTCOME

By the end of the workshop, you will be able to:

- Differentiate between various legal entity and the associated tax computation.
- Distinguish between tax planning, avoidance and evasion.
- Compare and contrast the difference between personal tax and business tax.
- Identify the key tax planning techniques that are permissible within the law.

METHODOLOGY

Challenging case studies, tax computation preparation, group discussion and Powerpoint presentation.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Accountants
- Finance managers
- Financial controllers
- Individual tax payers
- Academics
- Various investors
- Sole proprietors
- Financial planners
